Come to Me O you wea - ry, and you shall be given rest.
You will be greatly sad - dened, And yet the world will re - joice.
E - ven though you'll be scat - tered, Each one to his or her home,
Peace that passes all know - ledge Is yours if you follow Me.
Mourning will turn to glad - ness When you a - gain hear My voice.
You will see me in trou - ble, and you'll all leave me a - lone.
I go back to My Fa - ther, But you won't be left a - lone. The Com - fort -
In that day you'll not ask Me For a - ny - thing that you need. In My Name Yet my Father will save me. Al - though there's tri - al and grief; For I have er from my Fa - ther Will tell you all you should know.
ask of My Fa - ther, And He'll make your joy com - plete.
o - ver - come all things; And I am giv - ing you peace.
