

The Good Shepherd

John Valade (June 15 2010)

Chording by Wanda Valade

Voice

Our Lord Je - sus Christ, is called the Good Shep - herd for He cares
The one who sneaks in to the sheep - fold at night, the one who When our Shepherd calls, do we heed His voice? Or will we heed for all of His flock. He's al - so the Gate, and the on ly way in. We just won't take the door, That one is a thief and a robber, and worse. He the stranger in - stead? Do we risk our lives on the hi - re - ling's lies? Do are His, how else could it be? The Good Shep - herd calls, and brings to them nothing but woe. The hire - ling pre - tends, but we trust our Shepherd in - stead? In Je - sus we trust, in the sheep hear His voice, by their names he leads and they go.
he's there for the pay, he won't care for the sheep at all.
His sav - ing hand's might, by His love displayed by His death He walks on be - fore, and they fol - low in trust Cause they know the sound of His
The wolf or the bear have not one thing to fear, He'll run for the hills when they His power made plain when He rose up a - gain as the Lord of heav - en and voice. The Good Shep - herd lays down His life for His sheep, for He came that call. earth. [Song ends here] they might have life. Our Shep herd has all pow - er at His com - mand to raise us from death back to life.