

There's a Place In My Heart

Wanda & John Valade

(Loosely based on a Celtic melody sung by the Rankin Family on an early album)

August 8, 2011

Voice

There's a place in my heart that I long for; My true home that I have There's no coun - try on earth with true free - dom, Free from war, greed, oppress - yet to see. Jesus Christ is my guide, for He's Lord there. It's His home, ion and strife. For secur - it - y you pay a high price: An al - leg - that He's shar - ing with me. Far beyond time and space are new hea - vens; iance that does not bring life. Jesus proved by His death that He loves us;

And a new earth without any seas. An abode without tears and oppress - Resurrec - tion proved that He's in charge. Even Death could not hold Him as hos -

- ion, Filled with joy, endless life and with peace. There's a place in my heart
- tage In His life is the hope of man - kind.

that I long for; It's reserved now in hea - ven for me. I've accept - ed the Lord's in - vi - ta - tion. When He comes He will bring it for me.