

The Good Shepherd

John Valade (June 15 2010)

Chording by Wanda Valade

Voice

Our Lord Je - sus Christ, is called the Good Shep - herd for He cares The one who sneaks in to the sheep - fold at night, the one who When our Shepherd calls, do we heed His voice? Or will we heed for all of His flock. He's al - so the Gate, and the on ly way just won't take the door, That one Is a thief and a robber, and the stranger in - stead? Do we risk our lives on the hir - er - ling's in. We are His, how else could it be? The Good Shep - herd worse. He brings to them nothing but woe. The hire - ling pre - lies? Do we trust our Shepherd in - stead? In Je - sus we calls, and sheep hear His voice, by their names he leads and they tends, but he's there for the pay, he won't care for the sheep at trust, in His sav - ing hand's might, by His love displayed by His go. He walks on be - fore, and they fol - low in trust Cause all. The wolf or the bear have not one thing to fear, He'll death. His power made plain when He rose up a - gain as they know the sound of His voice. The Good Shep - herd lays down His run for the hills when they call. the Lord of heav - en and earth. [Song ends here] life for His sheep, for He came that they might have life. Our Shepherd has all pow - er at His com - mand to raise us from death back to life.