

What Is Man?

Wanda & John Valade

June 20, 2010

Based on Psalm 8 and Hebrews 2:5-9

Voice

When I watch the star-ry hea-vens, see the works
You have made him for do-min-ion o-ver all Un-til now, we've failed do-min-ion. Creatures flee!

Your hands have made: Moon and stars that time the sea-sons,
Your hands have wrought; Beasts of earth, yes, sheep and ox-en
We kill them all! Yet we see Je-sus ex-alt-ed.

I am in awe, of Your great Name! What is man,
Un-der our kind, up-build-ing hand. Birds of air,
The winds and waves obey His call. Je-sus came that You up-hold him? Child of man, that You should care?

their ser-vants will be. As will all fish of the sea!
and shared our na-ture. That is why He's fit to bring,

Made of dust, yet You ex-alt him, a-bove all crea-
Just as land has all its ri-vers, o-ceans will yield Mult-i-tudes: sis-ters and bro-thers-- Re-born to share

-tures of our world! Oh Lord my God! How great You are!
their paths to thee.
in ev-ry-thing!

A-bove the earth! Be-yond the stars! Out of the mouths of in-fants rise, words that stop short the great foe's pride!
