

Our Suffering Servant

Leonard Mervin Johnson; Lyric Adaptation (Isaiah 53:1-6): John Valade February 19, 2017

Voice

Who has believed our re - port? And to whom is God's arm re - vealed? He shall grow as a ten der plant; Out of dry land be - fore the Lord. — with no beau - ty or ma - jesty to draw us. He is de - spised — and re - ject - ed of men. Ac - quaint - ed with sor - row and grief, — He's un - der - es - tim - a - ted and re - viled. He has borne our guilt and pain, Yet we thought Him cursed by God! He was wound - ed for our sins; For our healing and our peace. We like sheep have strayed. We have turned to our own way. But the Lord has laid on Him the in - i - qui - ty of us all.
We have be - lieved the re - port. in God's Son is His arm re - vealed. To the ends of the earth He saves! What was a des - ert now blooms with His grace!