

The Life and the Resurrection

John Valade
June 29 2017

Based on John 11:1-44

Voice

Ma - ry Mar - tha and Laz' - rus were sib - lings _____ and close friends of Je - sus Sisters Ma - ry and Mar - tha were saddened at Je - sus' delayed re - Though he had died a full four days prior, He or - dered La - za - rus Christ. And while Je sus was gone on a mis - sion _____ word came that Laz' - rus would turn. They both knew that if Je - sus had been there their bro - ther would be a - out. Then he ex - i - ted, bound in his grave clothes. To shock and marvel of die. Je - sus told his di - sci - ples that death would not win, _____ but leave God and live. Martha knew that God would give His Son all he asked: he would be res - all. The au - thor - i - ties, fearing their na - tion would turn, Condemned Je - sus his Son glor - i - fied. So he wait - ed two days and then went on his way, _____ to
- surrected one day Mary fell at his feet with her eyes full of tears. Je - to death on a cross. Most a - ston - i - shing still was the third day at dawn, when find Ma - ry and Mar - tha in mourn - ing. I'm the life and I'm the res - ur - rect - sus spoke to their fears with this say - ing.
he rose from the dead in - to glo - ry.
ion. Be - liev - ers will live though they die. And who - ev - er lives and be - lieves in me -
Be - lieve this! he ne - ver will die! _____