

Freedom

Tune: Wanda Valade
Inspired by the style of Mark Pinkus
Lyrics: John Valade and Wanda Valade
July 13, 2018

Voice

It was for free - dom Christ has freed you, not for a yoke of sla - ver - y.
That dread night Christ asked His di - sci - ples to watch with Him — as He prayed.

to wor-ship him in truth and free-dom be-cause the truth has — set — you free.
My Fa-ther! If this cup can - not be ta - ken a - way un - less — I drink,

In Je - sus Christ you are tru - ly free. For once you walked in ways of dark-ness, Yet not my will, but let Yours — be done. Je - sus came once to die for our sins, but now you live in light of God. His Ho - ly Spi - rit lives with - in you, to wash a - way our guilt and shame, to set us free from the sting of death, to be your right - eous - ness and Guide. Love, joy, peace gen - tle - ness and pa - tience, and re - con - cile us to our God. When He re - turns to reign on this earth, good-ness, faith meek - ness, tem - per-ance - these will the Spi - rit grow with - in you,

We shall be raised up to the sky, And we shall be with Him for all time.

a - gainst such there can — be — no law. For Je - sus Christ tru-ly made you free.
God shall wipe all our — tears — a - way, And sin shall be re - moved from earth.