

God Can Be Known

John Valade

Text adapted from Romans 1:15-25

June 5, 2019

Voice

I'm in debt to the Greeks and Bar - bar - i - ans, to the wise It's how God's right - nes is shown from faith to faith; As God says, His e - ter - nal pow - er and God - head they knew, so they no So God left them to un - clean lusts of their hearts to de - grade and al - so the un - wise. So as much as is in me I long to "The just shall live by faith." For God's wrath is re - vealed from hea - ven a - long - er have an ex - cuse, Yet they de - nied God glo - ry though Him they their own bod - ies them - selves; they made God's truth a lie and serve what was preach the gos - pel to you in Rome. For I'm not a - shamed of gainst the e - vil who hide God's truth. What may be known of God knew. un - grate - ful and vain in thought. So with dark, fool - ish hearts, made but not their cre - a - tor God. Let's not be a - shamed of the Gos - pel of Christ, for it is the pow - er of God for sal - va - is so ob - vi - ous, for God has shown it to them all. What to us they claimed to be wise, ex - chang - ing God for i - dols made In the i - the Gos - pel of Christ, for it is the pow - er of God for sal - vat - tion for all those who will be - lieve, the Jew first, and then the Gen - tile.

 is un - seen from the cre - a - tion is un - der - stood from what He's made. mage of man or birds or of beasts, or e - ven like foul creep - ing things.. tion for all those who will be - lieve, the Jew first and then the Gen - tile.